

ON THE RADAR WITH SHELLEYGAN (27 OCTOBER 2020)

27th October 2020 / EAGLE FM

ON THE RADAR - 27/10/20

A. Street vendors continue to cry for reform in informal trading as they are chased away from their trading areas. On Saturday a group of vendors were chased from their trading area in the city centre and their fresh products were confiscated.

B. Covid-19 has forced employees from the traditional office setting to working from home. This however proved to be a different challenge all together.

C. Namibia Marine Phosphate is overwhelmed after receiving 4 000 applications for 600 jobs. This is despite the backlash phosphate mining received from environmentalists.

Click to list @ 55:00 min

<https://www.eaglefm.com.na/podcast/on-the-radar-with-shelleygan-27-october-2020/>